- 2. course on the Indian Sub-Continent was completed on 10 May, having had 13 students in regular attendance. The course appears to have filled a long-felt need. Several requests for a repeat of the course have been received.
- 3. The flags of the 81 United Nations have been received for display in the Language and Area School. One set will be hung in the Language Laboratory, and the other set in the corridor of Wing F, Quarters Eye. This is result of a suggestion originated by after he returned from his world tour with DTR.

25X1A9a course and would be handled by with assistance. 25X1A9a agreed that the language materials and discussions could most profitably be organized around area themes concerned with 25X1A9a Germany and, in addition, one neighboring Satellite, preferably Poland. He estimated that EE, under favorable conditions, might have two to four candidates for this course. 25X1A9a has determined that OSI and ORR also are interested, and may well have at least one candidate each. 25X1A9a 7. , TO/ORR, volunteered the information that students who have taken the Integrated Language/Area course on the USSR are enthusiastic about its effectiveness. 8. Allan Evans, Director of State/OIR, made a highly original presentation of the subject, "Impact of World War II on Europe," in the Free Europe course. This concluded a series of six historical lectures on the theme, "Roots of Contemporary Priblems," which drew capacity audiences in this course. 25X1A9a is now contributing further to the instruction in the Basic German course by recording tapes in German to complete the variation drills. 10. The Bulgarian test was given on 9 May for two people. Mr. Vasil Furnad of the Voice of America served on the panel for the oral test. 25X1A9a 11. The German test was given on 9 May for four people by special request. Mrs. served on the panel for the oral test. 12. The School's language program currently consists of 474 class hours per week. 25X1A9a
